Before submitting your application, please make sure you have included:

- a portfolio (digital only: downloadable, attached or on a website)
- a cover letter including a presentation of your current or expected project(s), preferably in French
- a copy of your passport or National Identification Card with a photograph

Reminder: Almost all courses are in French. It is therefore expected that incoming students have a good understanding of French (equivalent to TCF* B1 level). Non-French speaking students can apply provided they speak English fluently. Admission decision will be based on the availability of the teaching team as a customized learning agreement will be required.
